Location

Tianjin is one of the four municipalities in China, the strategic spot in the Integration of Beijing, Tianjin and Hebei. It's the most dynamic and capital-intensive region. It has been developed into the "third growth pole" driving the Chinese economy.

Xiqing District is located in the southwest of Tianjin, 2/5 of Tianjin Outer Ring Road is within the boundary of Xiqing District. With superior geographical location, Xiqing District has a symbiotic relationship with the downtown. The total area of Xiqing district is 570.8km<sup>2</sup> with a population of 1.35 million.

XEDA was established in 1992, approved as the state level economic development area by the State. Over 2003 enterprises registered in XEDA, a total investment is 20.445 billion USD (until March, 2016). Total planning area is 150 km<sup>2</sup> of which 16.88 km<sup>2</sup> industrial zone has been completed.
